

Fostering Internationalization at Montenegrin HEIs through Efficient Strategic Planning – IESP

Title of Work package	Dissemination and Exploitation Events
Activity no.	6.4.2
Title of outcome	Report on Info Day with students with disabilities
Activity date	4 June 2021
Authors	Nikolina Radulović, Ana Dragutinović

The University of Montenegro organized information day Support for students with disabilities through Erasmus+ projects on Friday, 4th June 2021.

Representatives of the National Erasmus+ Office in Montenegro and the International Relations Office of the University of Montenegro presented the exchange possibilities for students with disabilities, as well as support that is provided through implemented Erasmus+ Capacity Building Projects in Higher Education.

Prof. dr Veselin Micanovic, Vice-rector for the teaching of the University of Montenegro and Vanja Drljevic, National Erasmus+ Office coordinator gave an opening speech.

Andjela Milic, on behalf of the Association of Youth with Disabilities of Montenegro (AYDM), spoke about the Student Advising Office of this Union.

Rina Muhaj, representative of the National Erasmus Office, and Nikolina Radulovic, on behalf of the International Relations Office, gave more details about the inclusion and priorities of the new Erasmus+ programme.

So far, the University of Montenegro has implemented a number of projects with activities dedicated to students with disabilities.

Prof Tatjana Novovic, PhD, coordinator of the project FOSFIM. prof. Tatjana Dlabac, PhD, coordinator of the project Trans2Work, Msc Ognjen Savic, member of the project team LNSS – Central University Library of the UoM, prof. Biljana Djuricin, PhD, coordinator of the ENEMLOS project – Legal help OSI, Nikolina Radulovic, member of the project team IESP and prof. Igor Lacic, PhD, coordinator of the project REFLAME –about activities within the projects related to students with disabilities.

It was announced that a person with disability will be employed in the Rectorate of the University of Montenegro to provide assistance to students coming from vulnerable groups.

